Lobanillo Swales

Located along TX Hwy 21 approximately 6 miles east of San Augustine, TX

From Hemphill, TX take TX 184W to TX 21W

The Lobanillo Swales, owned by ECLAT, are the largest concentration of physical remnants of El Camino Real de los Tejas found anywhere in the United States. Composed of seven swales, measuring up to eighteen feet deep and twelve feet wide, archaeological surveys of the site have discovered over three centuries of artifacts ranging from the Spanish Colonial period in the late 1700s to the American period in the early 1900s.

Here you can learn all about this historical site and walk the same path that led to the founding of Texas!
